

Holy Miracle House of Prayer of the Apostolic Faith

Statement of Faith

The sixty-six canonical books of the Bible as originally written were inspired of God, hence free from error. They constitute the only infallible guide in faith and practice. There is one God, the Creator and Preserver of all things, infinite in being and perfection. There is One Lord, one faith, one baptism, One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all (Ephesians 4:5,6).

God created Adam and Eve in his own image. Therefore God instituted marriage between a man and a woman. By disobedience, they fell from their sinless state through the temptation by Satan. This fall plunged humanity into a state of sin and spiritual death, and brought upon the entire race the sentence of eternal death. From this condition we can be saved only by the Grace of God, through faith, on the basis of the work of Christ, and by the agency of the Holy Ghost.

The eternally pre-existent Son became incarnate without human father, by being born of the Virgin Mary. To affect salvation, HE lived a sinless life and died on the cross as the sinner's substitute, shedding HIS blood for the remission of sins. On the third day HE rose from the dead in the body which had been laid in the tomb, declaring that all power in Heaven and in Earth is in HIS hands. We are converted to Christianity by being baptized in Jesus name and receiving the Holy Ghost (Acts 2:38).

When we have turned to God in penitent faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, we are accountable to God for living a life separated from sin and characterized by the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23). It is our responsibility to contribute by word and deed to the universal spread of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. At the end of the age, the bodies of the dead shall be raised. The righteous shall enter into full possession of eternal bliss in the presence of God, and the wicked shall be condemned to eternal death.

And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory(1 Timothy 3:16).
