

Pastor Antonio Davis's Biography

Pastor Davis has been married since December 1993. He and his wife, Tonya, have two children, Justin and Jordan, Justin and Jordan are both college graduates from Northern Illinois University. Since June 2000, they have resided in Olympia Fields, Illinois.

Pastor Antonio Davis has earned three college degrees. He has a bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois at Chicago. He has a master's degree in education, focusing on curriculum and instruction, from the University of Illinois at Chicago, and a master's degree in psychology from Chicago State University.

Pastor Davis was employed as a history teacher at Thornton Township in Harvey, Illinois for eight years. He was employed as a high school counselor for fourteen years for Chicago Public Schools. He is currently employed by a special education school district in Chicago Heights, IL.

Pastor Davis's wife has worked for Chicago Public Schools as an English teacher for over twenty-five years. Tonya has earned four college degrees. She has a bachelor's degree from University of Illinois at Chicago. She has a master's degree in education, focusing on curriculum and instruction, from University of Illinois at Chicago. Tonya has a master's degree in educational leadership and a master's degree in higher education both from Chicago State University.

Pastor Davis has a passion for ministry. He has been at Holy Miracle House of Prayer since its inception in 1978. He was baptized at the age of fifteen, and filled with the Holy Spirit at the age of nineteen. It was also at age nineteen that he began preaching the Gospel. In January of 2000, he became assistant pastor of Holy Miracle House of Prayer. On July 8, 2001, Antonio Davis was installed as pastor of Holy Miracle at the age of 32 by the late Bishop Arthur M. Brazier of the Apostolic Church of God. On July 13, 2001, Pastor Davis was ordained an elder in the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World (P.A.W.). Pastor Davis made P.A.W. history as being one of only a few to be installed as pastor and ordained an elder in the same week.

In May of 2005, Pastor Davis, along with several other Christians from around the world, were blessed with the opportunity to fellowship in the country of Jordan for ten days.

Pastor Davis has preached throughout the United States and in several countries: the Dominican Republic, Jamaica, and Ghana. His personal testimony of being raised in the church, never drinking alcoholic beverages, never smoking, never doing any illegal drugs and has only been intimate with his wife, has blessed so many Christians as well as non-Christians.